SOUTH CAROLINA CONSUMER PRACTICE MANUAL

Fourth Edition

Published by the South Carolina Appleseed Legal Justice Center

The South Carolina Consumer Practice Manual

This manual is intended to provide a basic introduction to SC consumer law and certain federal laws. It will assist the practitioner in understanding basic issues and provide a starting place for finding protections and causes of action.

It contains explanations, checklists, interpretations of the law, a number of pleadings to provide lawyers with tools for litigation.

Designed for both attorneys and non-lawyers, the South Carolina Consumer Practice Manual contains over 17 chapters, and covers such important issues as helping clients avoid harassment by debt collectors to monitoring the accuracy of their credit report. Each section includes cross-references and annotations to judicial decisions and administrative guidance. All advocates can benefit from the concise, yet comprehensive explanations of the strategies available to address consumers' legal issues.

Whether you are a consumer credit counselor, social service provider, or lawyer, the South Carolina Consumer Practice Manual will become an important and useful tool in your consumer practice.

Appleseed Legal Justice
Center

The South Carolina Appleseed Legal Justice Center (SCALJC) is a private non-profit organization that has over a twenty- year history of providing support and legal training to legal aid programs, pro bono attorneys, low income service providers and the clients community. SCALJC works on behalf of low income persons in the areas of housing, welfare, health, nutrition, consumer, children's issues, education, community economic development, and domestic violence issues at the South Carolina State Legislature and state agencies. SCALJC also provides education and training, maintains a brief bank, co-counsels with attorneys, brings impact litigation, staffs task forces on substantive issues, writes practice manuals and brochures, and acts as a clearinghouse of information.
