

Posted on Sun, Aug. 16, 2009

People and Achievements

ARCHITECTURE

Christina Goodwin of Studio 2LR has been elected treasurer for the South Carolina Palmetto chapter board of directors for the Society for Marketing Professional Services.

Dana Herron of Studio 2LR will serve as a board member of the International Interior Design Association Carolinas Chapter for 2009-2011. She will serve as the Sustainability Forum Director.

Asheley Scott of Studio 2LR has passed the LEED—NC exam to become a LEED accredited professional with the U.S. Green Building Council.

ENGINEERING

Michelle M. Moshinskie, marketing specialist at DESA, has been certified a competent Internet marketer at the Web CEO University.

INSURANCE

The Brunetto Insurance Agency in Columbia and Carolina First Insurance Services in Lexington were named among the top 10 growth agencies for Auto-Owners Insurance in South Carolina last year.

LAW

Victoria L. Eslinger, a partner of Nexsen Pruet, has been named the 2009 Advocate of the Year by the S.C. Appleseed Legal Justice Center.

David S. Michel, director of technology for Turner Padgett Graham & Laney, has been named regional vice president of the International Legal Technology Association.

R. Bruce Shaw, a partner at Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough, has been selected to The Litigation Counsel of America (LCA).

The S.C. Bar has named these section council chairs for the 2009-10 year: Col. Barry Bernstein of the S.C. National Guard in Columbia, military law section; S. Belinda Ellison of the Law Office of Belinda Ellison in Lexington, workers' compensation section; Randolph R. Lowell of Willoughby & Hoefer, PA in Columbia, environment and natural resources section; Thomas E. Lydon of McAngus Goudelock & Courie LLC in Columbia, consumer law section; Wesley D. Peel of Bruner Powell Robbins Wall & Mullins, LLC in Columbia, construction law section; Ashlin B. Potterfield of Taylor & Potterfield in Columbia, family law section; and Susan Stewart of First American Title Insurance Co. in Columbia, real estate practices section.