

MEET MADDIE...

Maddie lives with her parents and 2 brothers. Maddie goes to a small school in a poor neighborhood. Her school's policies will have a big effect on Maddie's future

COMMON SENSE SCHOOL

School administrators and teachers greet students in the halls as they arrive.

ZERO TOLERANCE SCHOOL

School resource officers and local police officers patrol the halls as students arrive.

Maddie comes to school hungry and it makes it hard to concentrate in class. Her school has Community Eligibility so she gets fed breakfast and lunch at school.

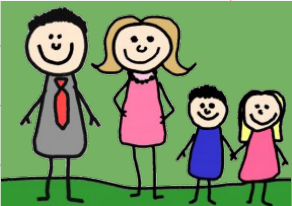

Maddie is hungry and can't concentrate in class. Her teacher gives her a detention for goofing off.

Maddie has a fight with her friend in the cafeteria and shoves her. School staff stops the trouble as it starts and keeps the situation from getting out of control.

Maddie has a fight with her friend in the cafeteria and shoves her. A school Police officer arrests both students.

Maddie and her friend help out at the school as a consequence for their fight. The counselor also talked to her family about other programs to make ends meet.

Maddie is sent to a juvenile detention facility and misses school. She may get suspended from school and she has an arrest record

HOW DO WE WANT KIDS IN SOUTH CAROLINA TO END UP?